

A DIVE TO DEATH

Substitutions of well-known advertised articles seem to be the order of the day. We deem it only justice to our patrons to warn our readers against this form of piracy. When you want an article, ask your merchant or druggist for it, and don't accept a substitute.

Kennedy Fed Settled After the atomey Failure—Three Men Killed
With Three Bullets—A Police Force Under Arrest for Lynching a Prisoner—Minor Crimes and Casualties of a Day.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., August 27.—One of the most disastrous railroad wrecks known in the annals of this state occurred here about 2 o'clock at Boston bridge, two miles east of Statesville, on the Western North Carolina railroad. The passenger train consisted of the fast mail which was made up at Salisbury, pulled over to this wreck, and the engine, which was composed of a baggage and mail car, second and first class coaches, a Pullman sleeper and the superintendent of bulloader cars. "Daing." The engine, which came from Goldsboro, usually carried a goodly number of passengers from some points, and last night was no exception to this rule. The entire train consisted of a distance of twenty-five miles. After leaving Statesville there is a horse bridge spanning a creek, and due to this creek the engine and the train, a distance of sixty-five feet. Twenty passengers were killed outright, nine severely injured and about twenty badly bruised and shaken up. The scene at the wreckers description. The night was calm, and, to add to the horror of the situation, the water in the creek was up to the level of the engine. The engine and those who had hurried to the scene of the wreck that the injured were drowned. The accident was caused by the engine striking the bridge, which was not injured and trains are running on schedule time.

Twenty dead bodies are now lying in the marshes of Statesville. Following are the names of the killed: William West, engine driver; N. C. Warren Fry, engineer; N. C. H. K. Linster, baggage car conductor; N. C. P. Barnett, St.

Charles Bennett, Hendersonville,
W. J. Fisher, Campbell, S. C.; Justin, Hickory, N. C.; T. Brodie, orange, New York; J. M. Sykes, Clarke, N. C.; Mrs. Poole, Williamson, N.
C.; Thomas, trading station, Wil-fells, colored, Pullman porters, Jerusalem, Statesville; Mr. McCormick, Madras, Va.

Dr. George W. Sanderlin, state and local doctor on the wrecked train. He was patiently injured. Among others who escaped were: Col. E. B. Ransom, Northampton, N. C.; Col. E. Cameron, of the government; Patrick E. Ransom, Northampton, N. C.; Otto Ransom, Norfolk, Va.; John Elliott, Hickory, N. C.; George, Atlanta; Col. O. W. Lawson, Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. A. H. Berdell, Orange, N. C.; Mrs. R. C. and Miss Op-
john, Helena, Ark.; A. S. Duke,

A TRIPLE KILLING.
LOUISVILLE, August 27.—In an effort to a hystraxier, and John Jarvis, 21, was killed, and Burrill Jarvis, 22, was mortally wounded. Bad feeling existed between the Kendalls and Jarvis families in the county. Last week Kendall's watermelon patch was robbed and it was reported that the Kendalls thought that the Jarvises robbed it. The Kendalls thought that the Jarvises were angry because Jarvis family, and were angry because the Kendalls had a watermelon house on the farm, and the Kendalls at the Jarvises were getting even. Parran had been sworn out and the state for today. This morning Milt Kendall and his four sons came to town to attend. The three Jarvis brothers were there, but the best information is that only one of them brought a gun with went hurtling into the hands of A. J. Montgomery and axed for good. Just then Mills Rendall, the father of the slain boy, stepped forward and fired at the door with a revolver. He killed four at Jarvis, but his Montgomery fell instantly. Rendall immediately threw down his gun and started to flee. Jarvis, who had been shot in the back, turned and fired at him. Rendall fled, mortally wounded him. The Rendalls agreed to be in jail. Only three shots were fired.

JACK FROST.

WINNEPEG, Man., August 27.—A hard-frozen frost came last night in a formidable force. The thermometer was down to 5 degrees below the freezing point. The frost was so deep that it was no doubt that much damage was done.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., August 27.—Reports from various points in North Dakota

THE PARK PLACE INQUEST.

TENNIS CHAMPIONS.
NEWPORT, R. I., August 27.—The last tennis match for the championship tables today was won by Campbell a victory in the first three sets, defeating Hobart and Hall.